How to Participate 🙌

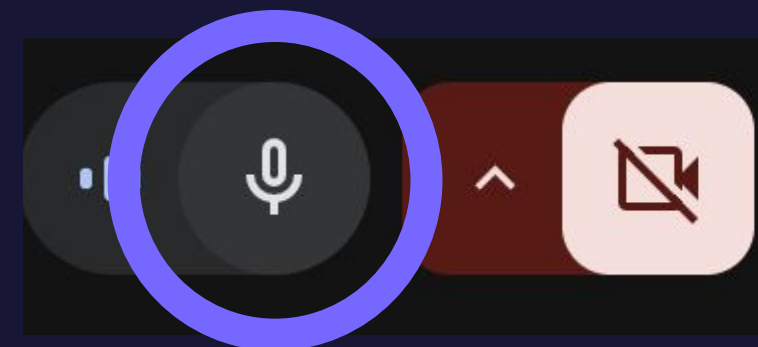

Hand Raise

Please use the hand-raise feature before speaking. We'll make sure to call your name in order to keep the flow structured and give everyone space to contribute.

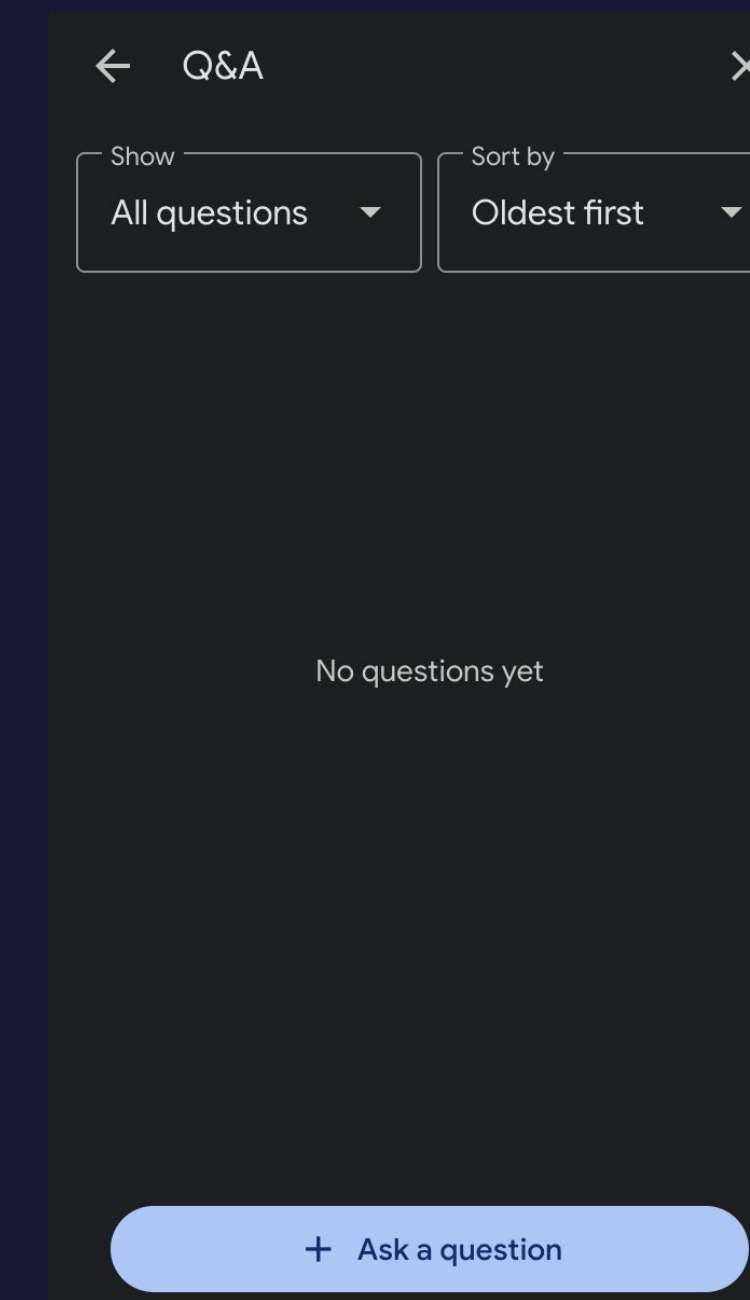

Unmute

Once your name is called, feel free to unmute and jump in. This helps maintain a clear and organized conversation.

Q&A

You can also submit questions via the Q&A section in Google Meet. We'll moderate, read them out and mark them as resolved.

Emojis

Feel free to use emoji reactions to show agreement or engagement throughout the session – they're a great non-verbal way to participate.

Semjon Here – Excited to Connect! 🙌

Semjon N. · May 20, 2025 11:40 AM · Share Open with AI ^

🙌 Hallo Team!
my name is Semjon and I'm based in Germany, working at Niedax.
I've been involved in a project with SoSafe for almost three years now, and it's been a great journey so far.
I'm really looking forward to connecting with this community. Especially to having fast, helpful, and open communication around the topics we all care about.
Fun fact: I love exploring new countries and try to travel at least twice a year to places I haven't been before!
Excited to be here and looking forward to the exchange with all of you!

Bye Bye 2025, Welcome 2026

-  August 19
Introducing the #1 virtual meetup
“Hackproof Hangout”

 Lea Kehrmann with: “Turning a Breach into Action: Challenges & Lessons Learned”

 Discussion : “Are employees more careless with cybersecurity during vacation season?”

Lessons Learned & Actionable Items

Lessons Learned

- Our security systems work!
- Theory & practice are two pair of shoes
- Posting IT emergency contact details in the office is not enough in a remote setup
- Employees need to be made aware of what is an urgent issue and need to receive further training

Actionable Items

- Communication to employees: In which cases should I contact IT directly?
→ Urgent request to all employees to save emergency numbers on mobile phones
- Print business cards with emergency contacts for employees

Ideas for the longer term

- Practising/ actually playing through such situations

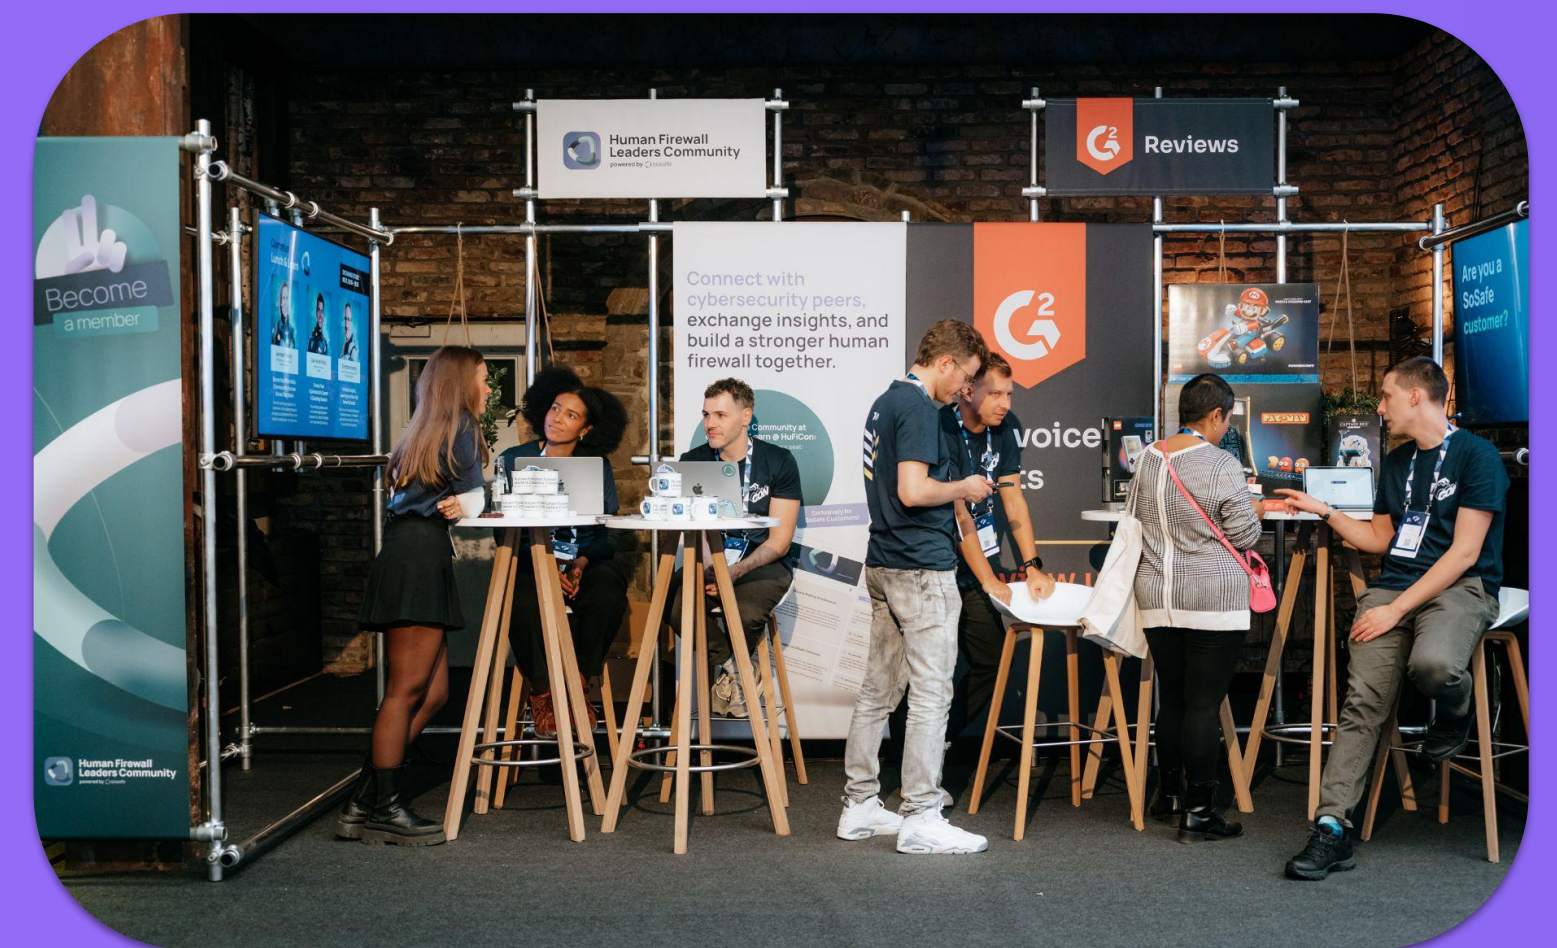

Bye Bye 2025, Welcome 2026

—  November 3&4
Community at HuFiCon!

- Community Lunch & Learn with
